Rômulo makes his first training session with Palmeiras and is excited to debut in Libertadores Rômulo, the new midfielder for Palmeiras, had his first training session with the team on Monday morning. Despite feeling a bit nervous, he is excited to start his journey with the club and is looking forward to making his debut in the Libertadores Cup.

"This is my third day here", Rômulo said. "I had a great reception, the team is very welcoming. I'm starting to get to know my teammates and the way they play. I'm very keen to help the team inside the field, playing, scoring goals, and giving assists. I want to show that I'm ready."

Rômulo has already been registered for the Libertadores Cup and is eagerly awaiting the confirmation from Conmebol to be able to play. He believes that he is physically fit and ready to hit the ground running.

"I prepared myself during the preseason, I've been playing a lot of games lately, so I'm in good physical shape. If given the opportunity to play, I'm ready", Rômulo said confidently.

The Palmeiras is set to debut in the Libertadores Cup against San Lorenzo, from Argentina, in Buenos Aires. The team is in group F of the competition, along with Del Valle from Ecuador and Liverpool from Uruguay.

With 22 years old, Rômulo signed a contract with Palmeiras until the end of 2024. He is determined to make an impact within the team and help them win.

"I want to retribute within the field, playing the best way I can, making great games, scoring goals, giving assists, and helping the team. I want to show that I'm here to help the team", Rômulo said.

The second leg of the Paulista final will occur on Sunday, at Allianz Park, at 6pm. Palmeiras is the current two-time champion.
