Cash game

Cash games, also sometimes referred to as ring games or live action games, are poker games played with "real" chips and money at stake, often with no predetermined end time, with players able to enter and leave as they see fit. In contrast, a poker tournament is played with tournament chips worth nothing outside the tournament, with a definite end condition (usually, only one player left), and a specific roster of competitors.

Rules [edit

Players may freely buy into or cash out of a cash game between hands.[1] However, it is normally prohibited for a player to remove a portion of his or her chips from the table. This is known as "going south".[2] For example, if a player buys in forR$100, then winsR$100 (for a total stack ofR$200), the player may not remove the originalR$100 buy-in while remaining seated. He would have to forfeit his seat, possibly wait to rejoin the game, and buy in again forR$100; however, many cardrooms prohibit the practice of buying in again unless a certain time period has elapsed before the player rejoins. Similarly, cash games are played for table stakes. If a player attempts to put additional money onto the table (from his/her wallet) in the middle of a hand, he may not do so until the conclusion of said hand.

In "no limit" poker cash games, some cardrooms have a maximum buy-in for cash games. In limit poker games, there is seldom a maximum buy-in because betting limits already limit the amount a player can wager on each hand.

In a casino, a rake is usually taken from a pot if a flop is shown and the pot reaches certain values.[3] Some games take a time rake instead of a pot rake. In these games players pay a seat charge every half-hour.

Ring games [edit]

While the

terms "ring game" and "cash game" are often considered synonymous in common usage, opinion differs on the true definition of "ring game". For example, in the glossary of Doyle Brunson's Super System 2, a ring game is defined as "A game with a player in every seat, that is, a full game—as opposed to a shorthanded game".[4] As such, the term "cash game" may be considered a more precise depiction of the kind of game commonly found in most casinos or home venues; that is, a non-tournament game played for actual money (or chips representing actual money), without regard for the number of players seated at the table at any given time.

Comparison with tournament games [edit

Tournaments and cash games have different basic strategies. One difference between tournaments and cash games is that the blind/ante structure of tournaments increases periodically over the course of the tournament, whereas the blind/ante structure of cash games remains constant. Another difference between the tournaments and cash games is that a tournament sticks with a predetermined style of poker, and cash game players, depending on house rules, may have the option of playing other types of card games. Some online cash games offer a variety of choices limited only by the game software.

Other differences between cash games and tournament poker are that, in cash games sometimes straddles and chops are allowed. A live straddle is a dark bet of two big blinds by the player first to act, who is then entitled to bet again if the bet is not raised. A chop is an agreement between the players in the blinds to retract their blind bets if no one else has bet. A chop prevents the casino from taking a rake from the pot. Also, cash games sometimes allow players to reduce the element of luck (often called "variance", especially by professional players) by splitting large all-in pots. Since online platforms can instantly calculate each player's pot equity at the time they go all-in, some online cash games allow such pots to be split based on this equity. Players who opt for such an arrangement will receive a share of the pot based on his or her odds of winning (from the time all players still in the pot exposed their cards) once all of the cards have been dealt. An alternative method of reducing variance, used both online and in live games, is to run the board multiple times to ensure that the person with the best odds of winning gets the largest share of the pot more often.

Examples [edit]

An example of a cash game is broadcast on the United States subscription-based streaming service PokerGO as High Stakes Poker. The Bellagio casino's "Big Game" is a high-stakes permanent cash game, featuring a wide variety of rotating poker games with and without limits.[5]

Tres hombres arrestados y acusados de acoso sexual a niños a través de las redes sociales de Meta en Nuevo México

Tres hombres han sido arrestados y acusados de acoso sexual a niños mediante las redes sociales de Meta en Nuevo México, anunció el miércoles el fiscal general del estado Raúl Torrez. Los arrestos se derivaron de una investigación sobre el potencial daño a niños causado por Facebook, Instagram y WhatsApp, llamada "Operación MetaPhile". Los agentes encubiertos se hicieron pasar por niños, a quienes los tres hombres solicitaron para tener relaciones sexuales, según la denuncia penal. La operación encubierta forma parte de una demanda legal en curso presentada por la oficina de Torrez en diciembre que alega que Meta ha permitido que sus plataformas de redes sociales se conviertan en mercados para depredadores de niños.

"Esta operación se centró en un punto específico, es decir, el peligro presentado por Meta y sus plataformas de redes sociales no existen solo en el mundo virtual. En realidad, representan un peligro para los niños en el mundo real", dijo Torrez en una conferencia de prensa.

Detalles de los acusados y las acusaciones

El 7 de mayo, Marlon Kellywood, de 29 años, fue arrestado frente a un motel en Gallop, Nuevo México, y acusado de solicitación de un menor por medio de dispositivo electrónico de comunicación y de intento de penetración criminal de un menor. Ese mismo día, Fernando Clyde, de 52 años, fue arrestado y acusado de los mismos cargos.

"Estos son Mark Zuckerberg's culpa; es la culpa de los ejecutivos de una empresa que tiene recursos extraordinarios a su disposición y ha elegido una y otra vez colocar los beneficios por encima de los intereses de los niños", dijo Torrez. Meta no respondió a la solicitud de comentarios.

El tercer hombre, Christopher Reynolds, de 47 años, es un delincuente sexual registrado y fue arrestado varias semanas atrás, según Torrez. Los investigadores encubiertos se enfocaron en él después de que los padres preocupados informaran que había estado acosando a su hija de 11 años. Ha sido acusado de solicitar relaciones sexuales con un menor.

"Expresaron bastante claramente un interés sexual en los niños", dijo Torrez. "Estas son personas que explícitamente utilizaron esta plataforma para encontrar y acosar a niños".

Los agentes encubiertos que se hacían pasar por niños no iniciaron conversaciones sobre contacto sexual, según Torrez. En cambio, todos fueron localizados y contactados por los tres hombres acusados, quienes fueron capaces de encontrar niños a través de las características de diseño en Facebook e Instagram.

Demanda legal y acusaciones adicionales

Desde que se presentó la demanda legal en Nuevo México en diciembre, la oficina del fiscal general ha actualizado el expediente legal varias veces para incluir una lista de acusaciones adicionales.
